JANUARY-FEBRUARY, 1939

CONTENTS

Forty Years Ago This Month ..... Frontispiece
Wounded Knee—A Look at the Record 5
By Brig. Gen. E. D. Scott, USA-Ret.
Sound-Flash Survey 25
By Capt. Millard Pierson, FA
Ballade 26
By J. N. G.
Twelfth Field Artillery Loses Horses 27
The German Artillery in Combat 29
A Translation from Revue d'Artillerie
By Colonel R. McT. Pennell, FA
The 1938 Knox Trophy Battery 41
By Capt. E. T. Williams
Commencing a Modern War 43
By Col. Conrad H. Lanza
Hollywood Fights a War 59
By Lt. Harvey S. Ford, FA-Res.
Dirty Field of Glory 62
By Peter B. Kyne
The Convergence Problem 72
By Lt. James L. Frink, Jr., FA
Service Practice of the 387th Field Artillery 75
By Lt. Col. A. H. Means, FA-Res.
The Underslung Winch 79
By Major C. R. Taylor and Lt. C. B. Dear, 160th FA
National Guard and Reserve Officers' Class (Fall, 1938) 82
By Lt. M. H. Weisman, FA-Res.
Here's How! From the Seventh Field Artillery 84
By Capt. H. C. Larter, Jr., FA
United States Field Artillery Association 85
Reviews 88
The Ramparts We Watch
Lord Roberts
The Spaulding Lecture Series 93
Some Forward Observations 94
Military Books 96

MARCH-APRIL, 1939

CONTENTS

Editorial 99
Frontispiece (Figure 3 of illustrations to accompany 1939 Prize Essay) 100
Firing Tables for Battery Executives (1939 Prize Essay) 101
By Capt. Murray O. Klingaman, 367th FA
G-3 Chews An Issue Pencil 108
By Rollin Quezon
Some Notes for Battery Executives 109
By Capt. Harold F. Handy, FA
The Executive and the Firing Battery 122
By Lt. John W. Hackney, 107th FA
Practical Method for Converging the Sheaf 126
By Lt. Bernard Thielen, FA
"Cavalry the Successful Arm" 127
(From the Journal of the Royal United Service Institution)
Firepower, Mobility, Communication (Photographs) 128
The Cavalry-Artillery Team 130
By Lt. John F. Greco, FA
A Short Visit to the American Artillery 142
By Capt. W. G. H. Pike, R.A.
Type Problems and Writ 150
Typhoon and Flood 155
By Capt. Tom Sherburne, FA
2,000 Miles through the Rockies 159
Capt. W. J. Rogers, 143d FA
Solution to Writ 165
The French Fire Direction Chart 166
By Capt. M. L. Curry, USMC
Italian Gunnery Methods 171
By Capt. Voris Connor, FA
Reviews 176
Cantigny, A Corner of the War
Japan, Government-Politics
Notes on French Ordnance, 1717-1936
Notes and Comments 178
By J. S. W.
More on the Santa Barbara Theme 189
Some Forward Observations 191
Military Books 192

JANUARY-FEBRUARY, 1939

CONTENTS

Forty Years Ago This Month ..... Frontispiece
Wounded Knee—A Look at the Record 5
By Brig. Gen. E. D. Scott, USA-Ret.
Sound-Flash Survey 25
By Capt. Millard Pierson, FA
Ballade 26
By J. N. G.
Twelfth Field Artillery Loses Horses 27
The German Artillery in Combat 29
A Translation from Revue d'Artillerie
By Colonel R. McT. Pennell, FA
The 1938 Knox Trophy Battery 41
By Capt. E. T. Williams
Commencing a Modern War 43
By Col. Conrad H. Lanza
Hollywood Fights a War 59
By Lt. Harvey S. Ford, FA-Res.
Dirty Field of Glory 62
By Peter B. Kyne
The Convergence Problem 72
By Lt. James L. Frink, Jr., FA
Service Practice of the 387th Field Artillery 75
By Lt. Col. A. H. Means, FA-Res.
The Underslung Winch 79
By Major C. R. Taylor and Lt. C. B. Dear, 160th FA
National Guard and Reserve Officers' Class (Fall, 1938) 82
By Lt. M. H. Weisman, FA-Res.
Here's How! From the Seventh Field Artillery 84
By Capt. H. C. Larter, Jr., FA
United States Field Artillery Association 85
Reviews 88
The Ramparts We Watch
Lord Roberts
The Spaulding Lecture Series 93
Some Forward Observations 94
Military Books 96

MARCH-APRIL, 1939

CONTENTS

Editorial 99
Frontispiece (Figure 3 of illustrations to accompany 1939 Prize Essay) 100
Firing Tables for Battery Executives (1939 Prize Essay) 101
By Capt. Murray O. Klingaman, 367th FA
G-3 Chews An Issue Pencil 108
By Rollin Quezon
Some Notes for Battery Executives 109
By Capt. Harold F. Handy, FA
The Executive and the Firing Battery 122
By Lt. John W. Hackney, 107th FA
Practical Method for Converging the Sheaf 126
By Lt. Bernard Thielen, FA
"Cavalry the Successful Arm" 127
(From the Journal of the Royal United Service Institution)
Firepower, Mobility, Communication (Photographs) 128
The Cavalry-Artillery Team 130
By Lt. John F. Greco, FA
A Short Visit to the American Artillery 142
By Capt. W. G. H. Pike, R.A.
Type Problems and Writ 150
Typhoon and Flood 155
By Capt. Tom Sherburne, FA
2,000 Miles through the Rockies 159
Capt. W. J. Rogers, 143d FA
Solution to Writ 165
The French Fire Direction Chart 166
By Capt. M. L. Curry, USMC
Italian Gunnery Methods 171
By Capt. Voris Connor, FA
Reviews 176
Cantigny, A Corner of the War
Japan, Government-Politics
Notes on French Ordnance, 1717-1936
Notes and Comments 178
By J. S. W.
More on the Santa Barbara Theme 189
Some Forward Observations 191
Military Books 192

MAY-JUNE, 1939

CONTENTS

Editorial—Blind Firing 195
Frontispiece—Battery C Sixteenth Field Artillery 196
Flying Observation Posts for Artillery 197
Digested from Revue d'Artillerie by J. S. W.
The Autogiro—An Observation Post 202
By Captain Louis B. Ely, FA
We Must See With Our Own Eyes 215
By Major H. W. Blakeley, FA
"Mecca" 219
By Lois R. Dunn
May-June . . . Arlington / Molly Pitcher's Pitcher 222
By Fairfax Downey
An American Attachment: Some Reflections 224
By Major A. G. Little, Royal Artillery
A Method of Inspection of the Training of the Individuals of an Organization 229
By Colonel Richard C. Burleson, FA
The Military Organization of Yugoslavia 234
By Captain Gordon Gordon-Smith, Royal Yugoslav Army
Coaching Pistol Teams 241
By Captain Ivan D. Yeaton, FA
Aiming Point to the Rear 249
By Felix Semper
Adventures in Subcaliber 256
By Major E. P. Hamilton, FA-Res., and Major Dominic Sabini, FA
Indoor Adapter for FA Trainer, M-2 263
By Lieutenant Colonel John A. Hoag, FA
The Field Artillery Horse Show Team in Mexico City 268
By Major Norman J. McMahon, FA
Short Cuts for High Burst or Center of Impact Adjustments 275
By 1st Lieutenant Clyde R. McBride, FA
Brush Lifting at Benning 279
By 1st Lieutenant J. D. Wilmeth, Infantry
Centennial of Ohio's 135th Field Artillery 281
Reviews 284
Some Forward Observations 287

JULY-AUGUST, 1939

CONTENTS

New Applications of Old Principles 293
By Colonel Conrad H. Lanza
General Danford's Visits to Field Artillery Posts 308
Seventeenth Annual Field Artillery School Horse Show 311
By Ivan Offelitch
Special Notice: U. S. Field Artillery Association Prize Essay, 1940 313
Sketches from Life 314
By Alex Ford
A Symposium on Leadership 316
By Capt. Chas. R. Gildart, FA
Contest for Small-Arms Historians 330
Attack in Spain 331
By Brig. Gen. Henry J. Reilly, ORC
Translated by Lt. T. L. Crystal, Jr., FA
Why 300 Mils? 336
By Capt. D. C. McNair, FA
Reviews 342
Washington Artillery 101 Years Old 344
Rounds Per Man Per Minute 345
By Major Christiancy Pickett, FA
Specification—Poem 348
By Mrs. Thomas Wadelton
University of Utah Wins 1939 Pistol Competition 349
The Light Artillery Battalion Functioning as a Fire Unit 351
By Capt. John J. Burns, FA
Requests for Old Standards 353
A Method of Teaching Preparation of Fire to Field Artillery Students in the ROTC 354
By Captain R. A. Ellsworth, FA
An Army Wife on DOL 357
By Rosalee G. Porter
One of Founders of Association Retires 358
Plotting a Point from Coordinates 359
By Capt. Murray O. Klingaman, FA-Res.
British Artillery Poster 365
All-Component Force Makes Night River Crossing 366
Master Sergeant Swett Retires 367
Some Forward Observations 368

SEPTEMBER-OCTOBER, 1939

CONTENTS

Editorial ... 371
Military Aspects of the Sudeten Crisis ... 373
By Colonel Conrad H. Lanza, FA
Has the Close-Support Problem Been Solved? ... 385
By Captain Conrad L. Boyle, FA
Special Notice ... 402
Young Field Artillerymen Honored ... 403
A Writ ... 404
Some Lessons from the Spanish War ... 406
Solutions to Writ ... 416
Awards of Field Artillery Medal ... 418
A Battery of Seventy-Fives in the Tempest, May, 1918 ... 421
Notice of Annual Meeting, U. S. Field Artillery Association ... 435
The Specialist ... 436
By George E. Laughinghouse
Fort Sill Game Farm ... 439
Does John Think Faster? ... 440
Mechanical Correction Board ... 441
Alexander Hamilton Battery Receives Special Guidon ... 442
Field Artillery Polo Team at Colorado Springs ... 444
By Captain A. R. S. Barden, FA
Attack in Wisconsin ... 446
On the Way ... 447
Our Foreign Contemporaries ... 451
Muzzle Bursts ... 454
Some Forward Observations ... 458
The European War—A Resume ... 460
Reviews ... 462

NOVEMBER-DECEMBER, 1939

CONTENTS

Message from the Chief of Field Artillery ... 467
Marching Animal-Drawn Field Artillery ... 469
By Major General Robert M. Danford, Chief of Field Artillery
Bombs Fell on North Carolina ... 473
By Guy Donn Farrell
The German Campaign in Poland ... 489
By Lieutenant Colonel von Wedel, General Staff Corps, German Army
Operations of a German Armored Car Platoon During the Pursuit of the Polish Army ... 498
By Lieutenant Colonel Truman Smith, Infantry
Camouflage for Field Artillery—Two Views ... 500
By Captain Peter Rodyenko, Corps of Engineers, Res., and Lieutenant R. S. Arnold, Corps of Engineers
Field Artillery Association Medalists ... 512
Gunner in Luzon ... 513
By Brig. Gen. E. D. Scott, U.S.A., Ret
Streamlined Convoys ... 525
By Lieutenant Colonel Ray L. Burnell, FA
Visibility in Range Estimation ... 530
By Lieutenant Edward A. Raymond, FA-Res.
Open Warfare ... 533
By Colonel Conrad H. Lanza, FA
Our Foreign Contemporaries ... 546
Michael V. Gannon ... 550
Muzzle Bursts ... 551
Some Forward Observations ... 553
Reviews ... 554
Military Books ... 557
Index for 1939 ... 560